

138525C

THEIR LAST TURN - Animals of famous Continental circus offered for sale by auction following bankruptcy of owner.

-Naples, Italy-

Picture:- Circuses have had rough times lately. Here is a famous--

--one which has gone broke, and is under the hammer by order of the-- --Official receiver of Naples. If anyone wants a cheap lion, now's his--

--chance for this circus has a hundred of them. There they are !

All nice and obedient - - er - - I think ! But I don't guarantee it !

For years delighted crowds filled the circus tents,--
--then business got bad, and it's only by charity that these--

--animals have lately been saved from starvation. If--

--you don't want a lion, have a pelican !

But the sale is a fiasco !

Nobody seems to want elephants, lions, tigers, etc. for--
--pets, but a girl did buy a lion cub ! She's ambitious !