GOODBYE WINTER - HELLO, SPRING ! People of Zurich welcome the arrival of spring with picturesque ceremony.

-Switzerland-

Picture.

BAND OVER FIRST SHOT.

All this pageantry and fuss is because the Swiss people have decided that Old Man--

--Winter has done all the freezing he's--

--likely to do before next season. I hope they're right !

Anyway they're taking no chances. His effigy is stuck up on the top of--

--a bonfire, and the frost demon perishes miserably in the-- --flames. It's picturesque ceremony symbolizing the welcome arrival of spring time. For your information,

--the fete is called "Sechselauten", but I don't think that matters !
