

"UP" ON THE DOWNS - Juvenile equestrians make a brave show at gymkhana near Epsom racecourse.

-Surrey-

---

Picture.:- Young horse lovers and riders gather at Epsom for their Gymkhana. The young people are quite excited as-- --it is their first meeting of the season. All riders in this event are between the ages of 9 and 16. Makes their-- --eyes sparkle. P.C. Benson wins this test.

Now, kiddies under 9 years enter for a cantering exhibition. Catch 'em young--

--is the motto of their riding master.

This is a really exciting event. An obstacle race. Sacks have to be put on with one-- --hand while holding the gee-gee with the other. It's all very complicated, but it's fun and the youngsters love it. Having put on the - - extra garment,--they're-- --supposed to lead their horse to skittles and knock them over. Irene--

--Robertson gets home sacked but successful. Sounds silly, doesn't it ?