"ELIJAH" - Grand production of Mendelssohn's magnificent oratorio by 300 members of the Southampton Musical Society.

-Hampshire-

Picture:- Southampton's Musical Society presents a spectacular production of Elijah, Mendelssohn's greatest Oratorio. Ahab, the pagan king forsakes the god of Israel, and leads his nation--

--in idolatrous image worship. Queen Jezebel incites the King to kill--

--Elijah who is preaching the God Jehovah. Heathen are brought to court by Jezebel to persecute those who are faithful to the-- --living God. During idol worship before the sacrificial fire Elijah appears to proclaim God's judgment--

--on the heathen. As the Lord liveth there shall not be rain or dew for three years.

Jezebel demands his death. The divine vengeance of-- --drought and famine wastes the land and the heathen is brought low. This--

--ambitious and successful production receives great support from musical Southampton.
