

THE BOYS' BRIGADE - Annual review of the Glasgow Battalion by the President, the Rt.
Hon. The Earl of Home.

-Scotland-

Picture:- In Glasgow, the Boys' Brigade was born in 1883. Since then many hundreds of thousands-- --of boys have received a disciplinary training in its ranks. To-day twelve thousand of the present members of the Glasgow Battalion are reviewed before their Honorary President, the Right Honourable the Earl of--

--Home, K.T. The Earl takes the salute as--

--the boys march past with soldier like precision, and with the--

--outlook of christian manliness. The youth of to-day is the man of to-morrow. Such movements as these have a fine effect in building--

--character and ability for right thinking.
And isn't that what the world requires most of all ?
