

"FULL DRESS" SWIMMING - Annual 'all clothes' race in the Serpentine proves to be a very wet affair.

-London-

Picture.:- The full dress bath parade, including a 'tile' hat ! The clothes--

--may shrink (splash !) but the bathers--

--(Splash !) don't, even though it's in the chill of a-- --wintry May morning. These are members of-- --the Serpentine Swimming Club sprinting in a novel race.

Competitors must wear a complete--

--suit, - er - in addition to the birthday one !
Each is putting his wettest leg forward to win.
They have braced themselves well for this effort, or anything may happen !

Somebody has won ! Mr. C.P. Bryant had greased his boots so he slipped--

--through the water ahead - - a foot - - of the rest!! Slippery fellow !
