A PARADE OF "FORCE" - Annual review of Liverpool
Police by H.M. Inspector of Constabulary, Lt.Col.
W.D.Allen, at Sefton Park.

-Lancashire-

Picture.:- I suppose this is the sort of thing criminals dream about ! One thousand thirty "bobbies" all looking one way ! The Liverpool Police are being inspected today, with--

--their new Chief Constable A.K.Wilson at their-- --head. Mr. Wilson is the man who charged the rebellious Dartmoor convicts and quelled the riot. Lieutenant-Colonel W.D.Allen, His Majesty's Inspector of--

--Constabulary watches the march past, and in company with-- --the Lord Mayor takes the salute.

Of course, it's raining ! Hard luck on all those polished--

--buttons. Never mind ! After the parade Robert can wet his whistle, too !
