

GOOD SHOOTING - Coldstreamers win first rifle competition of the season ,at Pirbright.

-Surrey-

Picture:- Territorials hold their Spring Rifle Meeting at Pirbright. As a preliminary the Rangers 12th--

--London Regiment cross to Duckhoard Bridge over the Canal at the double.

The 3rd Battalion Coldstream Guards follow !
Carefully, or you'll be in a cold stream !

Next comes the 1st Battalion Irish Guards racing over boggy soggy ground, slipping and sliding through the woods--

--to the Range. The London Rifle Brigade plops down on the rain soaked earth, and take aim on the enemy 500 yards away.

EFFECTS FOR REST OF SHOT.

EFFECTS OVER NEXT SHOT.

The Scots Guards advance to 400 yards and pot
at the inoffensive target which can 't answer back.

EFFECTS OVER NEXT SHOT.

For the second year in succession the Coldstream Guards win the Cup. Major General Cator hands it over and congratulates the Battalion on its work.
So, again, the Guards came through !
