Picture:- The event of the General assembly of the Church of Scotland is Edinburgh's high water mark of pageantry and dignity. The Lord High--

--Commissioner Sir Iain Colquhoun, with his escort of Lancers arrives at St.--

--Giles Cathedral. His Grace, accompanied by Sir Percy Radcliffe, G.O.C. Scottish Command, inspects the Guard of Honour. The impressive ceremonial continues--

--with the Lord High Commissioner being greeted by the Assembly of members, the clergy of the Scottish Church, prior to--

--the session commencing. The historic cathedral again sees the-- --colour and brilliancy of this unique religious militant spectacle.

We wish every success to the Assembly's important deliberations.
