DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK - Plymouth gives Their
Royal Highnesses an enthusiastic welcome.

-Devon-

---

Picture:- Flags are flying and hearts are light in-- --Plymouth to-day. The grey city of the Sea Kings is-- --gladdened by a visit from Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York. This is the fulfilment of a--

--desire of the Duchess to re-visit the West--

--Country. Her Royal Highness inspects the St. John's Nursing Services. Her smile is a tonic to tired nurses. With Lady--

--Astor she then bestows her brightness on women of the British Legion.

Indeed a royal day for Plymouth people.
More than ever from now on, will Devon be "glorious Devon" !
