NOBICE TO QUIT - Fire-brigade called upon to eject undesirable tenants from lofty abode near Berlin. Germany-

Picture.:- What do you know about--

--this ? These storks have nested--

--in a bakehouse chimney, and something has to be done ! Ah ! The--

--fire brigade ! (EFFECTS OVER REMAINDER OF SHOT).

Father Stork is pevish !

(EFFECTS OVER TWO SHOTS).

For the sake of--

--the village--

--bread that nest has got to come down !

And the fire--

--escape is the only--

--thing which can--

--reach it. Those storks will present a--

--long bill to somebody for this damage to their--

--residence. Of course the-- --house removers are being--

--very gentle in--

--case the storks get very annoyed--

--and bring fewer babies to the-- --village. Keep calm,--

--Mr. Stork. There's your--

--new location, all secure and convenient !

Is he grateful ? Well, how should I know ?
