THE BIG SWEEP - The "draw" for the Irish Sweepstake on the Derby - the world's largest lottery. Dublin.--

Picture.:- Well, ladies and gentlemen, here we are in the Plaza Hall,--

--Dublin, to witness the biggest gamble of all !Yours and mine,-- andq--

--nearly ten million other slips of paper are now in the-- --drum of fortune - or, (what is more than likely) the drum of--

--miss-fortune ! First comes the name of a horse,-- --and then, the great drum comes to a standstill -bringing millions of hopeful hearts, all over the world, to a full-stop, too ! I wonder if you realize that every ticket has a fifteen-thousand-to-one chance against coming from the drum to bring--

--a first, second, or third prize to its owner ! Long odds,--

--but what a gamble ! Millions of people throughout the world--

--have dreamt of good times coming from the-- --big drum, but most of them will still have to go on collecting--

--cigarette coupons if they want something for nothing !

Ah ! well ! Anyone want some Derby Sweep tickets ? Fourpence each !
