ALDERSHOT COMMAND SEARCHLIGHT TATTOO - Tens of thousands of children witness the only complete daytime performance.

-Hampshire-

Picture.:- What a sight this is ! In the midst of--

--60 thousand children comes Britain's little child Princess Elizabeth with her mother, the Duchess of York.

The charging, racing and the wheeling of the Royal Horse Artillery is a sheer joy, but what child does not love to jump at the sound of real guns.

FIRING EFFECTS.

Despite the excitement caused by these wonderful displays of --military skill, sixty thousand pairs of shining eyes of ten turn to look--

--again at the little one in the Royal Box, so like themselves, yet so different.

In this Canadian episode story book yarns come--

--to life. Stalwart settlers defend their home stead against the attack of treacherous Red Indians and when--

--hope is almost gone, the thrilling rescue by the Mounted Police.

What more could the heart of a child desire. Flash--

--and blood pictures of the romance of empire building. A never--

--to be forgotten history lesson ! Then the exultant finale ! The climax to an ~~evening~~ day

--of inspired entertainment. The Massing of Troops with the flags of empire. The men themselves, far from-- --unresponsive to the thrill of giving delight to their--

--littlest Princess. Then the super climax to emphasise which young voices shriek themselves hoarse,--
