TWINKLING STARS - ⁵Stage and screen favourites liven things up at the Theatrical Garden Party. London-

Picture.:- The most exhilarating party of the season !
This year--

it-is honoured by the presence of Prince George.

Miss Binnie Hale amuses herself and lots of others--
--by her new sport of fishing for fizz !

A very welcome catch on an afternoon like this !

Henry Hall, and the B.B.C. Dance Band plays a very blue melody !

All the fun of the fair is indulged in,--
--and crowds wait their turn to participate.

Throwing at coconuts is old fashioned, so these-- --girls shy at hats which usually--
--are worn by the nuts.

A pyjama dance ! Pyjamas are sometimes called sleeping suits, but that's a bedtime story !,--

--which brings us to the kiddies' corner ! What a day they're having. All this--

--labour and laughter is for sweet charity. Long may the spirit prosper !
