SWIM AND BE SLIM - Wallasey welcomes opening of new £34,000 open-air bathing pool.

-Cheshire-

Picture.:- Swimming for slimming is the slogan of Wallasey's new Bathing Pool. It's a wonderful--

--new water playground for townspeople and visitors.
It is named the Derby Bathing Pool, after Lord Derby who opened it. Polo players--

--in the first match of the Baths race after the ball--

--beat the opposing side, and score ! No ! It's saved !

Wallasey's water nymphs are in their element here, especially--

--with this huge ball from which they can dive - or slip off - - as the case may be ! Watch your step Aphrodite ! Steady does it ! Well, no one can say that's not the cleanest amusement possible !
