ROYAL ASCOT - The great racing and social carnival opens - a glorious picture of beautiful women in a charming setting.

Picture.:- Royal Ascot ! Warm light breezes and brilliant sunshine caress their Majesties the King and Queen as they drive down Windsor's long walk to make Ascot, Royal Ascot.

Lords and their ladies, commoners and their wives--

--watch the progress of the Royal coach, while around them the noisy clamour of thousands of voices rise in loyal greeting, as Britain's King and Queen draw into the--

--enclosure reserved for their reception. This year Ascot regains its former glories. The leading capitals of Europe-- --and the world have all contributed to this exotic sight !

Paris and London have excelled themselves in providing--

--colour, charm, and beauty, in the latest dress fashions. At the same-- --time, ladies, there is distinct evidence of individual choice--

--in hats. What is becoming, rather than--

--what is fashionable. And, of course, there are horses,--

--because Ascot is also a race meeting !

They're off ! Fifty thousand people roar that same phrase. The Ascot Stakes ! The Derby's rival ! "Castlederg" jumps ahead--

--in front of "Evening Glory" and "Roi--

--de Paris". "Castlederg" is still keeping ahead and still followed by "Evening Glory" and "Roi de Paris".

FINISH SHOT WITH NOISES.

"Castlederg" loses ground, and "Sandylashes" comes through "Roi de Paris", "Seardroy", and "Son O'Mint". I can't see-- --"Evening Glory". It's "Sandylashes", "Roi de Paris", No !

"Son o'Mint" is coming--

--up of the rails level with "Sandylashes". "Son O'Mint" and--

--"Sandylashes" have split the honours. "What's that cost you R.E.?" Dinky little hat, but she's - I mean - it's worth it!
