

2-228881

BATTLE OF CHICAGO - First and second year students of the Farmer Institute engage in annual
"straw war". U.S.A.-

Picture.:- Boys will be boys, and students will be students ! A good rag is supposed to make a man out of a new pupil !

Anyway, these graduates and freshmen do-- --their best to imitate an Irishman's ^{been enforced} ~~holiday~~. The object-- --is for each side to-- --capture as many sacks as possible. It's-- --nearly a disgrace to end up with-- --a shirt to your back. Some end up nearly naked, but not-- --a bit ashamed. Bags hurled with deadly aim create--
--great havoc.. This hurricane of bursting pillows feathers--
--the nests of the town's tailors and outfitters. The boys have--
--now to buy some respectable covering and a roll of sticking plaster.

The rag man reaps a great harvest, while the--
--rival leaders declare peace, and everybody's happy !
Hurroo !