

C-158851

AN ENGLISH ROSE - Gorgeous weather favours popular ceremony of crowning Scarborough's Queen of the Roses. -Yorkshire-

Picture.:- The coronation of the Queen of Roses is one of the high water mark events of Scarborough's holiday--

--season. To-day blue skies and brilliant sunshine favour this picturesque pageantry. Miss Ida Edwards the chosen Queen makes a lovely picture in rose pink followed by her train bearer and 12 court ladies.
Dignity and beauty are the key notes of this delicately staged tableau.

Enthusiastic thousands experience a thrill at the spectacle.

And when Lady Whittaker crowns the Queen Elect--

--the crowds do not stint their appreciation of Scarborough's choice. A Battle--

--of Flowers follows the star item. The Queen of a--

--day bows to cheering multitudes of her subjects.

To-morrow she will be just pretty Miss Edwards.again.