VILLAGE SETTLEMENT - T.R.H.the Duke and Duchess of York inspect new hospital at Papworth.Cambridge.

---

Picture.:- This sanatorium, to which the Duke and Duchess are paying a visit,--

--was built by patients of the old hospital it replaces. Men and women whose lives were despaired of renew their will to live and--

--erect this fine building. The children are a--

--little overcome by all this ceremony of pulling cords to release union jacks and reveal memorial tablets, but as is always the case, the Duchess wins their hearts in a matter of a few minutes and receives a courtesy and a posey from the shyest ones.

The sanatorium has 68 rooms, a separate one for each patient. The children--

--6r affected mothers are educated in the settlement.

The Duchess performs the prize distribution on this occasion. By this visit Their Royal Highnesses--

--have brought more brightness into this sunshine home.
