

POLICEMAN'S HOLIDAY - "Speed cops" step on the gas to win a prize at Imber Court. -Middlesex-

Picture.:- Police sports at Imber Court--

--provide an amusing and-- --thrilling entertainment before a big audience. The obstacle race--

--started on foot, but ended with the speed cops on motorcycles.

The horsemanship shown by these London bobbies is remarkable. Cleverer than the Cossacks--

--was the opinion of many present, and the judging for awards was-- --difficult owing to the very high standard of performance. The tent pegging competition is open to all His Majesty's forces-- --and Police in the United Kingdom. The efficiency of both riders and mounts is-- --exceptionally marked. One old horse in the show is-- scarred

--a war/veteran gunner which saw service--

--at Gallipoli. This is an interesting piece of work.
Gallop full stretch to a given point! Then pulling up sharp; the rider stopping and dismounting in a split second.

Princess Arthur of Connaught shows her admiration for these beautiful animals which--

--compliment the horse gracefully acknowledges.
