PRINCESS ROYAL-WITH THE V.A.D.

-Scotland -

---

Picture:- A great day for V.A.D.'s in Camp amongst the Scottish Hills at Blair Atholl. The Princess -- -- Royal pays the Detachment a visit of inspection. Her Royal Highness as -- -- Commander-in-Chief, also presents medals to Members of 15 years Red Cross --

-- Service. There's no lack of volunteers, many women having practically devoted their lives to the work.

The Royal Commandant takes a keen interest in V.A.D. activities and is much esteemed by its officers --

-- and members. The march past is matter for congratulation from Her Royal Highness. It should not be forgotten --

-- that these are voluntary workers. They don't forget that its an honour to wear the Red Cross !
