SHIP THAT WILL NEVER RETURN - Archbishop of Canterbury dedicates
"Southern Cross VI" to missionary service among the islands of Melanesia.
- Greenwich -

---

Picture: - A ship that will never return. Once she drops down the Thames on the tide which takes her -- -- to sea, there will be no coming back. Her -- -- mission is a sacred one, which has no --

-- end. His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Lang, has consented to perform the ceremony of Dedication - for this ship is to be dedicated to the Service of God. Soon she will be scorched by tropical suns and whipped --

-- by the fierce storms of the South Pacific but until she rots, her work will not cease. Her parish will be the Islands of Melanesia, an area of -- -- 10,000 square miles. She will be the palace of the Bishop who has undertaken the task, the --

-- Rev. W.H. Baddeley. She will sail under -- -- the banner of Christian Faith, to shed light in dark places.
