LAST MEMORIAL TO THE MISSING - At Thiepval, H.R.H. The Prince of Wales unveils monument to the memory of 73,357 men lost in Somme battles and who have no known graves. - France -

Picture:- With the unveiling of the Thiepval Memorial, the work of fourteen years is completed. The arrival of the Prince of Wales and the French President -- -- signals the commencement of the ceremony. The task --

-- of the War Graves Commission is ended. Of the awful toll of --

-- British lives to the number of One million One hundred and four --

-- thousand, six hundred thousand have now a known --

-- resting place, while the five hundred thousand recorded as --

-- missing are remembered by a roll of names on -- -- such monuments as this. For years yet, loving pilgrims, mothers, widows --

-- sweethearts, sons and daughters, will visit this sacred place hallowed by Death's Brotherhood, consecrated by the blood of those sacrificed in -- -- the catastrophic world war of 1914 - 1918 !
