

2-2001951

SHREWSBURY FLORAL FETE - Record crowd attends wonderful exhibition of blooms - - and thrills to splendid vaudeville show in the open. Salep-

Picture :- Shrewsbury prides itself on its Floral Fete !
For more than fifty -- --years, local growers have striven to make the exhibits of outstanding merit, and they have not failed ! Its success is told in the fact that some two hundred thousand people visit the Show every year.

Beautiful floral exhibits catch the eye everywhere !

This gorgeously coloured design represents "Pretty Pelly" !

She's pretty, but her name's not Pelly, and her heart is stone !

On an open-air stage the taste--

--of those who wish for entertainment of a different sort is--

--catered for. Trapeze acts and artists who have delighted show goers for generations--

--still perform their thrilling gymnastic work high above the ground, and gain applause for their--

--hazardous feats. To-day's theme song for Shrewsbury lads and lassies is "Hey Ho, Come to the Show !"