

OUTBOARD CLASSIC - - Midget motor-boats in thrilling dash for the ten-thousand dollar MacDonald trophy at Chicago. - U.S.A. - Picture.:- A ten-thousand-dollar prize is worth an effort !...

Most of us would do more-- --than this for that ! They have five miles to do,--

--and there's a thrill in every yard ! See the way the chap just coming up to "third-from-the-right" position is going ? ... Looks like a winner ! OH !
He's hit one of his rivals. Too bad,--

--for the rival ! ... But nobody pays any attention to him,--

--he's just unlucky, and they've got a job of work on hand !

Hearing the finish - - Al Bronsky, a student, suddenly remembers that ten-thousand, and "steps on it", to--

--such effect that the others look as though they're-- --standing still ! Well, that was a race - - and is-- --the winner happy ? ... You can have one guess !

You're right !
