WELL DONE, SIRS !      A hearty welcome home to the delegates who have done so much at Ottawa for Britain and the Empire.    -Southampton-

Picture.:- A big crowd awaits the arrival of the liner "Empress of Britain", for--

--she is bringing back home four of the men who have done--
--more towards "setting the world to rights", (at least--
--so far as the British Empire is concerned), than any since 1914.

Well done, Sirs ! ..... We join in the Prime Minister's greeting to--

--Sir John Gilmour, an indefatigable worker at Ottawa,--

--Mr. J.H.Thomas, quite happy about the state of Imperial affairs,--

--Mr.Neville Chamberlain, another believer in a good job--

--well done, and Mr.Stanley Baldwin, last but not least.

The civic reception by the Mayor of Southampton over,--

--the delegates take train for London, and, well a holiday seems to be indicated.
