

"GRACE BEYOND THE REACH OF ART" -- Hundreds of birds at Britain's largest swannery present a perfect picture of delight and charm.

-Dorsetshire-

Picture:- A properly organized colony of swans, officially called a swannery ! Dreadful--

--name ! I am sure some one will soon sing "Way down upon the "Swanery" river"-- if they dare !

These are very aristocratic birds ! Very dignified !
You would almost think they knew they were protected by Royal Charter ! But when feeding time--

--comes, they are not much more dignified than any other hungary beings ! They all make a rush for-- --the food boats and eat as much as they can in the shortest possible time !

These 500 birds are maintained by the Weymouth Corporation and are one of the-- --many sights of the town -- I love the way their tails waggle -- er -- This is actually the largest swannery in England !

I don't know whether you realize it, ladies, but you owe a debt of-- --gratitude to the swans. If it weren't for the lovely down--

--off their breasts, your noses might be more shiny.
