

GARDEN LOVERS' PARADISE - - Magnificent blooms attract big crowds to the largest of all flower shows - - at Southport. -Lancashire-

Pictures:- When one visits an exhibition of this nature, there is always the danger that-- --it will give the ordinary man-in-the-garden the "blooming" hump.

For surely such Gladioli as these came from Heaven, and not from the-- --earth we find in our gardens !..... Sweet peas, too ! Gorgeous !

Many of us aim at a herbaceous border.
You'll probably want to aim straighter and harder after this ! There are--

--cash prizes to the tune of £5,000. Sweet music !
