THERE'S SOMETHING IN THE SEASIDE AIR - Aspirants to boxing championship honours train in the open for coming contests, at Brighton--Summer--

---

Picture :-When a fellow can slog a one-hundredweight bag of sand like Jack Pettifer, it looks--

--as though Sharkey's future might be a little uncertain !

Pettifer is 6ft.7½ inches in his socks ! -- an inch-- --and-a-half taller than Carnera ! Talk about "having one's head in the-- --clouds". ..... Others believe in the seaside air, too !...

Scotty--

--Tearle, an American of nearly twelve stones looks quite a midget compared with the big Britisher, but-- --the giant can afford to "look down on" almost anyone who dares to be-- --in the ring with him. ..... Now Fred Rowlands, the farmer boxer from Exeter, has a go ! As a farmer, he-- --should know something about "thrashing", but Pettifer is rather different from--

--corn ! ..... When they're tired of boxing each-- --other, they take a spell of shadow boxing, where each man pretends he's up against a tough proposition. ....

The best thing about this is that it is a certain win for the boxer ! .....
