"STYLE" ON THE RIVIERA - - Visitors to Cannes delight in parade of "last word" in beach wear and bathing costumes. -France-

Picture:- People arrive by all sorts of conveyances to attend the parade of latest dress,--

--hm!- - perhaps I should have said "undress" - for-- --sun and sea. The correct thing for-- --yahting is said to be, not trousers, but skirts, of the wrap-round style; if they don't wrap all round, so much the better, it seems,--

--and more heads turn in their-- --direction.Of course, there are bifurcated garments in the show! They say that, due to-- --the absence of English visitors, the Riviera has been having a thin time - -

--er, not so very thin, what!

It appears that a suit of pyjamas - - and a toothbrush - - is about all that a girl--

--need take on a holiday nowadays !

(BRING UP APPLAUSE TO FULL TO END OF SHOT).
