BARNET FAIR - - The oldest horse fair in the world opens - - for the 777th time - - at Barnet.

-Hertfordshire-

Picture.:) A horse Show without frills ! This is where--

--men who live for horses and by horses, sell-- --them. Here, too, are buyers as old in-- --the tooth of horse experience, as many of-- --the animals are in age. For seven hundred and seventy seven years, ever since the reign of-- --Henry II, this Fair has flourished. Nags of great spirit, and temper, but doubtful blood ! Look at that fellow ! A tough job for a horse breaker !

But the glory is fading ! Hundreds of animals now--

--take the place of past thousands! Time deals--

--hardly with these survivals. But old Barnet Fair is still BarnetFair !
