CONWAY GROTT - - Unveiling of marble Calvary from Italy completes replicas of the famous Lourdes shrine. -N.Wales-

Picture:- Thousands upon thousands of devout Roman Catholic pilgrims are here to see Bishop Vaughan of Manavia unveil a marble Calvary in the Conway Lourdes Grotto. The Blessed Sacrament is paraded through the streets followed by a mile long procession of religious officials in their regalia.

The Calvary is of Italian stone and workmanship and weighs over eight tons.

Touching scenes are witnessed when homage is paid by kissing-- --the feet of the sacred figure. After the unveiling service was ended the Bishop gave his blessing to some forty crippled pilgrims.
