

FIFTY YEARS AFTER - - Veterans of the Egyptian campaign attend church parade on 50 anniversary of the Battle of Tel-El-Kebir.

-Edinburgh-

---

Picture.:- Fifty years ago the important engagement of TEL-EL-KEBIR was--

--fought in the Egyptian campaign. To-day the anniversary is celebrated by a-- --service at which veterans of the Battle attend. Most of them--

--are from Scottish regiments, principally the Gordon Highlanders. They include Major General Egerton, C.B.,--

--and Sir Ralph Anstruther, B.E. who both took-- --part in the engagement. A large congregation gathers to take part in the ceremony.

The medals shown here show also the service the veterans have rendered in-- --many wars and many lands. Lieutenant-General Sir Percy Radcliffe--

--G.O.C. Scottish Command takes the salute as the veterans march past under the shadow of historic Edinburgh Castle.