PRIME MINISTER'S DAUGHTER WEDS - - Rain fails to damp the spirits of well-wishers at wedding of Dr. Joan MacDonald to Dr. Alastair McKinnon, at Wendover.

-Buckinghamshire-

---

Picture.:- Hailed with tremendous enthusiasm by everyone able to be--

--here Dr. Joan MacDonald, accompanied by her father, the Prime Minister drive, to--

--the Church at Wendover. The fame --

--of the father, and the charm of the daughter have made this wedding an event in the--

--social calendar of the whole country.

After showing their affection in that way the--

--crush gathers to get a--

--glimpse of the bride. A happy picture in white and--

--gold, carrying a sheaf of white roses. Now as Mrs Alastair--

--MacKinnon, the people greet her--

--with a sincerity which is unmistakable. After the--

--reception at Chequers, their plans are still secret.

Doctor Joan, and reporters being what they are, they shouldn't remain so long !
