FISHER-FOLKS' "WALK" - - Occurring annually for the past 700 years, this is the first time this event has been filmed. -Cockenzie.Scotland.

Picture. :- Although this event has been held annually for seven hundred years, no one has thought of filming it--

--before, or of telling me exactly its origin. Like a lot of other quaint customs, its beginnings are "wropt" in mystery ! Whatever it was, it is now a special gala day for fisher lads--

--and lassies. It commences with a processional walk along the little harbour of Cockenzie. A military band provides--

--the march music and the pipers sometimes play too. This is evidently their lunch time.

The thing really starts moving from now onwards. The setts of the streets--

--rattle with the tap of heel and toe, the skirl of the pipes, and--

--the genuine Highland reel squeals from the lassies. This revelry is synchronous with the end of the-- --herring season, and the success of the--

--boats may be the reason for it. That's guess work--

--of course, but it's not a bad excuse if you're looking for one !
