

PAGEANT OF THE PAST - - Liverymen of the City
Guilds meet to elect Sir Percy Greenaway to succeed Sir Maurice Jenks as Lord Mayor of London.

-Guildhall, London-

Picture.:- With ancient pomp and ceremony the Lord Mayor Sir Maurice Jenks and--

--his aldermen, assemble to elect a successor for the highest--

--civic honour the City can bestow. Note the nosegays !
In olden days these used--

--to be sweet smelling herbs; the odours of-- --London's streets were much stronger then. During his term of office the retiring -

--Lord Mayor has earned the respect of the whole City. Now the--

--honour is to be supported by Sir Percy Greenaway, Alderman --

--of the Bishopsgate ward.

THREE DRUM SHOTS.

This is the only civic ride Sir Percy will take as Lord-MayerElect. On the next occasion he will be the brilliant centre of London's historic pageant, the Lord Mayor's Show.
