

2-551P51

THE CESAREWITCH STAKES - - The first "leg" of the big autumn double, decided at Newmarket.

---

Picture.:- The stage is set for the famous Cesarewitch Stakes,--

--and crowded too. The weather is ideal, and the-- --event is graced by the King and Queen. The--

--horses are out showing off before a packed enclosure. Many fortunes rest with these animals--

--to-day. By their frisking some of them seem to know it.

Twenty-six starters amble to the--

--tape as if sweep tickets didn't exist. They're lining up now, and they're off! A lovely start! Those who have--

--drawn horses in the Sweep are just getting rather wobbly at the knees with nerves. Now, where is which? "Blandearna" is leading from "Sandwich" the favourite at the gap. "Blue Vision" and "Sandals" are not far behind.

The bushes! There's "Sandwich", with "Roi de Paris", "Blandearna", "Nitsichin", "Sandals", and the rest getting bunched behind. It's uphill now! "Roi de Paris" and "Sandwich" are fighting hard.

"Nitsichin" is coming through on the rails. Yes, "Nitsichin" has passed the post, with "Chelmarsh" second, and "Sandwich" just getting third place from "Roi de Paris".

A great win by a fine horse. "Nitsichin" obligingly faces the camera for you and UNIVERSAL NEWS.