

5-PS1P81

HEROES ON PARADE - - Holders of the Distinguished Conduct Medal assemble at Blackpool for annual rally.

-Lancashire-

Picture.:- This gathering is unique ! They've all got the D.C.M. The oldest holder--

--in the world is Mr. Hampton. He's 83, and won the honour at Rorkesdrift, Africa, in-- --1881. These patriots come from all parts of England, Scotland and Wales.

They include members of the Legion of Frontiersmen,-- --whose founder congratulates Mr.Hampton. Most of-- --these men possess a row or two of--

--medals, but owing to the pouring rain,--

--their coats hide them. Major General Beach takes their--

--salute. London, Glasgow, Manchester, Sheffield, Leeds, Derby, Liverpool and all the--

--rest should feel honoured that they have contributed.