

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK IN GLASGOW - - The royal couple receive degrees of Doctor of Laws at the University.Scotland-

Picture:- The Duke and Duchess of York, and the West of Scotland which they are visiting to-day, make their favours reciprocal. By their presence, the Royal pair honours the University of Glasgow,--

--and its students. The University, through its Principal, Professor--

--Rait, honours its visitors by conferring upon them the honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws. The-- --scarlet gown of the Duchess enhances her charming beauty.

SUB TITLE.

The pouring rain causes no cancellation of Their Royal--

--Highnesses' program. While the Duke is on other business, the Duchess visits the Mearuskirk Children's-- --Hospital for the prevention and treatment of tuberculosis. Accompanied--

--by Glasgow's Lord Provost Sir Thomas Kelly, Her Royal Highness--

--visits the open-air wards and chats with the little patients.

The Duke and Duchess will stay over-night at Buchanan Castle. Their Scottish engagements are not yet exhausted.
