

JOCKEYS V. BOXERS - - Favourites of the Turf "knock out" stars of the Ring in charity soccer match, at West Ham.

-London-

---

Picture.:- Jack Bloomfield, captain of the giants leads his team into a bigger ring than they're used to running--

--about in. Mam Wragg trots on to the course with his team of midgets. Sam's brother Harry is in hospital with a broken leg. Sam has provisionally booked the-- --next bed. Lord Tweedmouth shakes hands with the boxers and jockeys who are meeting for charity's sake. The purse goes-- --to the hospitals. Referee Alex James warns the teams against hitting low or bering. Bloomfield Misses Wragg an affectionate farewell.

Lord Tweedmouth kicks off, and the match is on !

The odds are on the jockeys from the start. They're so hard-- --to, catch. Pettifer in goal keeps looking round his feet for--

--stray jockeys. He's afraid of treading on them. The jockeys seem to be all over the wing, and despite the giants strong--

--right swing <sup>in</sup> ~~on~~ the main wing,--

--the turf wins. The boxers says they kicked low. How foul !
