Picture:- The Royal Welsh Fusiliers gather together their old comrades at Cardiff-- --to take part in a memorial church parade. The Regiment's past history goes back to 1689, and many victories are inscribed upon its--

--colours. Blenheim, Oudenarde, Malplaquet, Waterloo, Lucknow, and later on the Relief of Ladysmith. In the Great War, it fought on every front. His Majesty the King has been the Regiment's Colonel-in-Chief since 1900. The Women's Auxiliaries also share--

--the honours on this occasion. The 117 battle hon-ours of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers constitute a British Army record.
