

THE BIG PUSH - An exciting battle in the never-ending war between Freshmen and Sophomores at Chicago University.

-U.S.A.-

Picture.:- Push Ball is a game--

--we haven't taken up seriously this side, but in America it's a game-and-a---half. Rival teams of first--

--year versus second year students meet.

And it's like shock troops--

--in a first-class battle. A hundred wild--

--men a side is nearly enough to start something, and--

--it usually does.

In the second half things begin to happen.

A mad rush from the line-up towards the ball - - there's one down, and the trouble commences. Anything to stop the ball being pushed into our goal. What a game ! The excitement is tremendous !

Vests and pants go flying through the air like somebody's washing ! Most minor casualties are remedied --

--with a bath towel, and the first-- --year students win. They must have had the strongest shirtings !
