FIRE IN SHANGHAI - - Destruction of city's treasury building causes consternation among natives.

-China-

Picture. :- If you have never--
--seen Chinese firemen at work, watch--
--these ! And if you have never before seen--
--real money going up in smoke, keep watching.
The fire is in one of-- --Shanghai's main streets, and the-- --building is the-- --City Treasury. Most of the city's-- --notes and currency were--
--somewhere inside. The notes--
--are now ashes, and the--
--gold and silver are--
--just mixed molten--
--metal. Firemen tried to--
--enter, but the flames had--
--made every floor--
--unsafe, so the millions--
--were lost. I--
--wonder what it feels like to lose a few millions !
