ETON 'GOES TO THE WALL' - - Etonians indulge in their famous 'Wall Game', as strenuous as it is untelligible to the uninitiated.

Picture.:- If anyone is looking for a new game, watch this one, and play it, if you want--

--to. The man third from the right places the ball against the--

--wall, and the fight commences. The idea is to push the ball either way along the wall past a white line 50 yards from the centre starting place. Sheer weight of man--

--power is most effective. When the ball gets away, it's sent back to the-- --wall again. I said this was a new game.

It probably is to you, but it is in fact, like the wall very ancient. Few--

--people, except Etonians, know about it. Whether you'll--

--want to know any more is doubtful. A try for goal. That tree is the goal.

No score ! The last time a goal was scored was in 1885. That--

--shows how thrilling it is. The only way to see the game properly is to balance yourself on the top of the 12 foot wall and not get excited. What with that, and no goals scored for twenty-two years, no wonder it's not popular with Arsenal supporters and football fans generally.
