wanted to--

--get to New York--

--in a hurry. All--

--seats in the next 'plane were booked,--

--so she got a bright idea, and posted herself--

--as a parcel, and got taken as a package--

--of the mail - - M A I L - - Anyway,--

--the postal authorities are satisfied-- --to register a female as a 'male'. Thirty-six hours of this sort of thing--

--and the plane, with its post, arrives,--

--at New York. The parcel duly thanks the post -- --office male, and probably adds 'well done thou good and--

--faithful press--

--agent!' That's all very well,--

--but how does one explain a parcel like that to the wife.
