

BATTLING HEAVYWEIGHTS - - Larry Gains, champion of the British Empire, administers decisive defeat to Michel Maurer, the German "star" boxer.

-Belle Vue, Manchester-

Picture:- Calling from Belle Vue, Manchester this time !
Larry Gains, Heavy Weight champion--

--of the British Empire is fighting Maurer - - wait a minute ! - - Five ! Six ! Seven ! Eight ! Nine ! - Maurer is the German Heavy-Weight with a great record and knows heavy weight boxing from the start - - Hello ! - -
One ! Two ! Three ! Four !

As a heavy-weight he's a sitter ! Three ! Four ! and has beaten--

--Don McCorkindale, whom he knocked out. Larry Gains keeps hitting Maurer hard, and he keeps replying by - - there he goes again ! The referee gives him a hand-up to save counting again. The German is plucky anyhow, and wades in again to find Larry's weak point, but doesn't know where to look for it. However, he - - ah ! dash ! - - One ! Two ! Three !--

--Four ! Five ! Six ! Seven ! Eight !--

Now he recovers, fights back, lands a few, then - - sits on the ropes before slipping down for another count.
One ! Two ! Three ! Four--

--Five ! Six ! Seven ! Eight ! Nine !--

--Ten ! Counted out like a true heavyweight. The crowd doesn't favour his style of standing up to it, and says so !

Gains is pleased enough, although he hasn't a German mark to show for it.
