WANTED GIRLS ON THE RIVER - -

Hardy young women vie in Eight's Race for new honour, on the Thames.

-Barnes-

Picture. :- Women are very much in the picture just now !
In fact in this--

--picture there are nothing but women. These are the river girls of the winter-time.

In the summer they wear the thinnest of--

--muslins, In the winter they wear even less. The event--

--which brings them out do-day is the-- final of the Challenge Cup for Women's Eights.

Six crews take the water for the start--

--and the competition is keen. They are just paddling up to the line.

Now they're off ! Isleworth and Alpha Clubs get away nicely and--

--soon leave the other 4 boats behind. Alpha has now drawn ahead of Isleworth and all the rest, and stands a good chance--

--of winning. Quite nice-mannered girls yell encouragement at the-- --top of their voices. Alpha girls strain every muscle and nerve to make the course in good time, even though they're ahead. Just nearing Barnes Bridge sees the end-- --of it. Alpha girls have--

--got it, although Isleworth is not far behind. Mrs--

--Borne presents the winners with the new William Borne Cup. Father Thames is proud of these daughters. So are we-- --all. What do you say, chaps ?
