

2185991

AMY'S TRIUMPH - -

Vast crowds welcome Mrs 'Jim'

Mollison, (Amy Johnson) on completion of her double-record-breaking flight to the Cape and back. Croydon-

Picture.:- Croydon at 11.45 is a place of crowds who talk in-- --subdued voices and gaze into the Eastern sky. Crowds which-- --swarm to every point of vantage, overlooking the Aerodrome. Then suddenly--

--a roar goes up. Here she comes, and the eagerly awaited Puss Moth plane has arrived. (EFFECTS FOR REST OF SHOT)

CHEERS.
EFFECTS.
EFFECTS.

Plane's prop stops in picture

The plane is stationary now, and Amy Johnson,--
--or Mollison, Amy anyway, gets out and greets Jim,--
--her husband. The crowd would like to get closer, but the Police are preventing a rush. Both the waiting husband--
--and the arriving wife must feel a--
--relief which is too great for description. On her return journey, this strong-hearted woman took-- --many chances against death, and husband and wife--
--both knew it. No wonder the feeling of intense relief of both !

EFFECTS.

There is surely no-one in the Kingdom who--
--does not feel proud to claim citizenship--
--with her. From ~~Their Majesties~~ the King and Queen to-- --the meanest subject, this magnificent feat claims generous admiration.

She is, without doubt, the world's greatest air woman. She has courageous rivals---

--but she has no superior.

18581

AMY TRIUMPH - -

CROWD AND EFFECTS.

CROWD AND MOTOR CAR.

Amy of the lion heart !

The modern heroine of the Empire ! Even when shorn --
--of all its spectacular character, her feat remains an--
--epic of air travel, the memory of which the whole nation will cherish.

EFFECTS to END.

Slight-vert-rem of effects at end !