

TERRIERS' DAY AT OLYMPIA - - Best of the world's "cheery little chaps" on exhibition at National Terrier Championship Show.

-London-

Picture. :- The fairground bakker might label this as the most colossal conglomeration of high-born terriers ever gathered together under one roof. Flamboyant, but correct! Thousands of terriers, with pedigrees as long as a piece of string! In a terrier show,--

--like this, one takes the rough with the smooth!
In this ring wire-haired fox terriers are being judged by Mr. W. H. Oldershaw. Very perky and very exclusive!
Hardly even condescending to give a friendly sniff
at their neighbours.

These visitors are watching Bedlington terriers being judged. Look as if they've just come from the barber's clippers.

These shows seem to be getting more--

--popular than ever. Here's Princess Eubangi only 30" high, with her Bull Terrier, thirty inches long.

Cairn terriers christened respectively "Crystal",
"Chip", "Darkie", "Fudge" and "Cheekie". Aristocrats, inspite of their names!

And the show champion, "Ricketwood Fun". A terribly expensive bit of fun.
