

STABLE BOYS IN THE RING - - Lads from famous racing stables don the gloves at the Stadium Club, in aid of St. Dunstan's. -Holborn.London-

Picture.:- The start of the fight between Petty and Bookless at the--

--Stable Lads' Boxing Tournament. The weight of these titanic scrappers is four stone, seven pounds.

No heavy-weight nonsense about these lads. Scrap as scrap can--

--is their slogan. No boring or pulling !

They know how a horse kicks, and with another ten-- stone, they might imitate it. Mr.C.H.Leader's stable finds the winner, --

--and R.Petty rides proudly into the paddock.
(APPLAUSE).

Now the weight goes up to six stone. Fletcher and Durr ! - - from the stables of R.C.Jones and the Honourable G.Lambton. The--

--boys fight freely and vigourously. Durr (with striped pants) is sending out some--

--stalwart punches but Fletcher has got his measure, forces--

--the pace and wins on points. A sporting effort on both sides.

(APPLAUSE).

Six stone, seven. Legget, and Brandban ! These fellows are among the stable lads' heavyweights, and put up a good mill. There's a nice punch !

The tournament is held on behalf of St. Dunstan's; the prizes being presented by--

--Sir Neville Pearson. For thirteen years money has-- --been raised in this way by the stable lads. They're little but good !
